

SECTION 3.1

Activity 5

SCRIPT:

Dialog 1

Employee A: My former supervisor was terrible.

Employee B: Why was that?

Employee A: He wouldn't let me go until the clock reached the final second.

Dialog 2

Employee A: I would say I have an easy-going supervisor.

Employee B: That's nice.

Employee A: He would definitely let us go early or get off.

Dialog 3

Employee A: What's your boss like?

Employee B: She's very strict, and no one dares talk to her.

Employee A: That sounds terrible.

Employee B: She's more like a tyrant than a good boss.

Dialog 4

Employee A: I am glad that you have an easy-going boss.

Employee B: Yes, me too.

Employee A: My former boss wasn't so nice at all.

Employee B: In what way?

Employee A: She was ..., I can't say the "B" word here.

Employee B: Oh dear!

Employee A: She was always trying to give a hard time to her staff.

Employee B: I've never had one like that.

Employee A: She had her own confidantes who she would treat nicely.

Employee B: Oh, that's typical!

Employee A: All others would get pain from her tongue!

(Source: Adapted from "How to Deal with a Nightmare Boss"

<http://www.mylot.com/w/discussions/2120819.aspx> retrieved 20/02/2012)